

Official Paper of the City.

A LETTER FROM MAJOR ANDERSON.—The Cincinnati Commercial Advertiser publishes the following extract from a letter from Major Anderson to a friend in that city.—It embodies the first authentic intelligence that has reached the public, concerning the reasons for the fact that the batteries of Fort Sumpter were not opened upon the South Carolinians on the 9th inst.

FR. SUMPTER, Jan. 11.

"Whether a bloodless separation can now be effected, after her (S. C.) foolishly firing upon a vessel bearing our flag, the other day, I think very doubtful. I was sorely tempted to open my battery, but, perhaps, fortunately, for the chance of having matters settled without bloodshed, I could not have touched the battery that opened upon her, and my defenses were just then in such a condition that I could not have opened war. I am now nearly ready. The people have supposed that this was ready to be defended when I came in. It was far from it—and it would take me even now, one week's hard work to have it in a complete state. My command is only one-eighth of what it should be in time of war—but though small in numbers, I feel strong in the confidence that Providence will guard and guide me safely through any danger that may threaten."

Yours sincerely,
"ROBERT ANDERSON."

THE STATUS OF SECESSION.—South Carolina seceded Dec. 20; Mississippi, Jan. 9; Alabama and Florida, Jan. 11; Georgia, Jan. 19; Louisiana, Jan. 26.

Conventions are to be held in Texas, Jan. 28; Virginia, Feb. 13; North Carolina and Tennessee, Feb. 18; Arkansas, Feb. 25.

The following Southern States have not yet called conventions:

Maryland, Missouri, Kentucky, Delaware.

Special dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial.

The struggle in Missouri.

St. Louis, Jan. 25.

The Bulletin, the free-acting organ, calls preliminary meetings of the states right party to propose delegates to a county convention, to meet on the 4th proximo, and is so very to believe that the Missouri Republicanism which is the old conservative paper of the city will support the federal government in enforcing the laws.

Representative Noel, in congress, writes the Republican a reply to a dispatch published here, to the effect that the Missouri delegation recommended immediate secession. He says: "I utterly repudiate the doctrine of secession, and deny that such rights exist under the constitution. I hope Missouri will be the last state to resort to this extreme revolutionary measure. I will be the last man in the state to give up the Union."

Craig, Phelps and Barrett, also repudiate the recommendation. The News and Republican declare they will support no man for the convention who is conditionally or unconditionally for disunion; and the News says it will observe no party distinctions. The Republicans will have six names on the union ticket. Canvassing is going on extensively at Jefferson City. Willard P. Hall is putting in heavy legs against Green.

Lieut. Governor Reynolds urges a postponement till after the 4th of March.

The St. Louis Democrat, one of the ablest and most influential papers in the Union, is an avowed republican journal, and makes an effective resistance to every scheme of secession.

The Free Democrat says that the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroad Company, last Wednesday, despatched a force out on their line of road to prevent an apprehended attempt at rail-ripping on the part of farm mortgagors.

We do not believe that the fears of the railroad company of such an unjustifiable proceeding are well grounded; or if any such design is entertained on the part of any of the mortgagors that it would receive the aid or approbation of the great body of them. The day for lawlessness has passed, and we do not understand the plan of the mortgagors to contemplate any other than a peaceable settlement of the question in redress. Any forcible destruction of property, or interruption of public travel, would receive general condemnation, including, we believe, the mortgagors themselves.

The New York Tribune in a notice of the speech of Mr. Washburne, in the house of representatives, indicates what is expected of the north-west. It says—"Mr. Washburne of Wisconsin made a speech in the house yesterday, in which he significantly remarked that if the constitution was to be reconstructed, the north would dictate the terms of reconciliation. He speaks the sentiment of the waterfired north-west, which spurs all concessions to the rebellious slaveholders."

A QUESTION FOR DOUGLAS MEN.—The Chicago Tribune submits a regular "pose" to the Douglas advocates of Crittenden's amendment. It says—"The Dred Scott decision declared the prohibition of slavery, embodied in the Missouri compromise, unconstitutional. Mr. Douglas and his followers have endorsed that decision a thousand times. Mr. Crittenden now proposes to establish slavery south of 36° 30', and to prohibit it north of that line. Mr. Douglas and a large number of his followers endorse Mr. Crittenden's proposition."

Query.—What becomes of old Mr. Taney and his decision?

Curses, like chickens, come home to roost. The steamship Columbia, of Spofford & Tileston's N. Y. and Charleston line, has gone ashore in the harbor at the latter place, doubtless in consequence of the removal of the buoys and the extinguishing of the lights. The steamer Nashville of the same line has been detained in New York in consequence. It will not be necessary to blockade Charleston while the present authorities have the arrangement of things there. They are so expert in all matters pertaining to the destruction of their own commerce that it would be a pity to interfere with them.

LEGISLATURE.—There was no quorum in either house yesterday.

[Reported for the Daily Gazette.]

BURNS' Anniversary and Caledonian Ball.

The one hundred and second anniversary of the birth-day of Scotland's favorite and world renowned poet, Robert Burns, was celebrated at the Hyatt House last Friday evening, by a large company of the admirers of his genius. Not only those from "Land of the Mountain and the Flood" were there to do him homage, but representatives from nearly every nationality were there, and claimed him as the world's.

At about eight o'clock

"Music arose with its voluptuous swell"

when the gay votaries of Terpsichore repaired to the dancing hall, which had been decorated for the occasion with Scotch plaid and other appropriate national emblems.

In the center of the room waved the St. Andrew's flag and the glorious Stars and Stripes of the Union, while on the wall, beside a beautiful engraving of "Burns composing his Cotter's Saturday Night," hung that of "The Father of His Country," George Washington.

After supper Judge Dow, of Cambridge, was called to the chair, and the following toasts were proposed.

The chairman in proposing the first toast said:

"The Memory of Burns."

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN—One year ago to-night many of us now present, met for the first time in this hall, to celebrate the birth-day of our country's favorite poet, and the occasion, like the present, that we are gathered together, was to pay homage to the memory of our native land, Robert Burns.

One year more, since then, has been added to the roll of time, and still we are gathered to the same hall, and to the same feast, to celebrate the birth-day of our country's favorite poet, and the occasion, like the present, that we are gathered together, was to pay homage to the memory of our native land, Robert Burns.

State Temperance Convention.

We find the following notice in the Wisconsin:

A state temperance convention will be held at Janesville, on Wednesday, Feb. 14th, and matters of grave import, not only to the cause immediately under consideration, but to all the interests of Wisconsin, moral, social, educational and pecuniary, will claim the attention of that body.

As many friends of the cause will necessarily reach Janesville the day previous, (Tuesday the 13th,) it has been decided to hold a public meeting on that evening, at which addresses will be made by gentlemen who have distinguished themselves in connection with the temperance reform.

The convention will be called to order at 8 o'clock A. M., of Wednesday, and will continue throughout the day and evening. Efforts will be made to secure for those who may attend the convention, excursion, or half-price tickets, over all the principal routes to Janesville, from the different sections of the state. Particulars will be given through the press.

We hope to make this the most interesting and important gathering ever held in Wisconsin, in connection with the temperance cause. Dr. Jewett, of Massachusetts, now lecturing in this state, will be present and take part in the business of the convention.

All public journals, friendly to the cause of reform, are respectfully requested to give this notice a conspicuous place in their columns.

By order of the state temperance com. Geo. E. SICKLES, Sec'y.

The ladies of Trinity congregation are specially requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Wood, this evening at 7 o'clock.

A COMMISSION.—Capt. A. B. McLean we hear has received from Gov. Randall a colonel's commission in the Wisconsin militia.

BURNS' FESTIVAL.—The report of this festival was not furnished us yesterday, as we expected. We publish it to-day, though late, for the benefit of those interested.

The military company is in a fine state of forwardness, accessions being made to their numbers at every meeting. The meeting last evening was well attended, in fact better than any previous one,—a prominent captain was selected, drill commenced, and Tuesday and Thursday evenings set apart for drill meetings. We hope to see present prospects prove a permanent reality. A board of civil officers will be elected on Tuesday evening of next week.

MILWAUKEE SCHOOLS.—The total expense of the Milwaukee public schools during the year ending Sept. 30th, 1860, was $46,647.16. The whole number in actual attendance was 3,296; the expense, per scholar, exclusive of the high schools, $13.25.

The Religious Press.—People who are constantly censuring the secular press for lying, may have their curiosity gratified by seeing the opinion of a distinguished clergyman as to the religious press.

Mr. Beecher on Lying and Religious Journals.—Sunday evening Rev. Henry Ward Beecher preached a sermon on lying, in the course of which he referred to deceptiveness and want of candor in social, business and political affairs. He said untruthfulness prevailed even among those professing to be good and pure. In this connection he spoke of the religious press, and said if making statements without a knowledge of their truth, suppressing facts to the injury of men, refusing to acknowledge an error when convinced of it; if these and many other forms of deceit and unfairness were lying, then lying abounded in the editorial columns of religious journals.—N. Y. World.

Good Stock.—The World says the profits of the New York street railroads are enormous. The Third Avenue road cost about $465,000. It is represented by a stock to the value of $1,250,000, which, not long since, was quoted at 170 per cent., or in other words, it returns 20 per cent. on five times its original cost. The Sixth Avenue road cost about $230,000, and represented by stock worth $800,000, which is valued at 170 per cent. The Eighth Avenue road cost about $280,000, which is said to be worth 200 per cent.

The Madison Journal learns that Prof. Butler, of that city, came near freezing to death during the past week while traveling in an open stage sleigh in Iowa.

ARKANSAS.—On the 18th of February the people of Arkansas will vote for "Convention" or "No Convention." They at the same time vote for delegates. If the "Convention" carries, it is to meet on Monday, the 25th. Each delegate elected is made a special messenger to carry the vote of his county to the capital, so that they will be there if a convention is called.

A WINDY DAY.—Several persons from various parts of the country who have called at our office to-day, report the day as one of the most severe they ever experienced. The roads are filling up with drifting snow, and on the prairies the wind is as sharp as a well kept razor. At times the snow is flying so thick as to conceal the view of the road entirely. We expect to hear of more delay and derangement on the railroads.

HEAVY PORK.—Mr. Emrath, of the town of Sumner, sold to Norton, Orent & Clark, of this city, yesterday, seven hogs that weighed 3400 lbs, averaging nearly 500 lbs each. Two of them weighed 1190 lbs.—They were only seventeen months old.

Having violated all her constitutional obligations, South Carolina has now repudiated her honest debts. A bill has passed both Houses of Legislature declaring all debts to citizens of non-slaveholding States null and void.

Miss Hinchey, of Albany, who has achieved a European reputation, made her debut in America, at the New York Academy of Music, the other evening. Her friends anticipated for her a triumphant success.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, JANUARY 29, 1861.

There was quite an increase in receipts of wheat and corn to-day over yesterday, and the market was considerably excited on the latter. Sales of about 2500 bushels of wheat at yesterday's rates, being 75¢ for milling spring, and 65¢ for shipping. Receipts of dressed hogs were 150 head which sold at a range of 5¢ 75¢ to 6¢ 40¢ per 100 for light and heavy, the latter figures being paid for extra heavy lots. The choicest lot of the season was brought to market to-day by Joseph Spaulding of Harmony, and purchased by Williams & Co., at 6¢ 40¢ per hundred; there were 8 in number and averaged 335 each, and were, we think, the finest 8 hogs marketed here this winter.

We make up prices as follows: WHEAT—good to choice milling spring 75¢ 75¢, fair to good dry shipping 65¢ 75¢; damp and grown 60¢ 65¢.

CORN—shelled 25¢ 25¢ per 60 lbs., or 20¢ 25¢ per 70 lbs.

OATS—in good request 15¢ 10¢ per bushel.
